Lauren,

I have a 2013 MY maintenance service interval request from Cummins. Could I have the latest "b7" approval language from them emergency rule you are working on? Cummins will need a response very soon, likely before the rule goes final. I want to

Hi Chris,

Here is the revised B7 request for MY 2013 Ram pickup trucks. As we discussed on phone, I have amended second paragraph to add language as specified in 1834-01(b)(7)(ii).

Please let me know if you have any questions or any further changes are needed.
